

Entertainments

Rising stars to shine

REHEARSALS are under way for Solihull Symphony Orchestra's Rising Stars Concert, to be held at Shirley Methodist Church, Stratford Road on Saturday, March 27.

The concert, which is an annual event, provides an opportunity for promising young local musicians to play movements from a concerto with a full orchestra.

Ben Jones studies cello with Corinne Frost and is completing A levels at the Birmingham Conservatoire.

Kevin Lee was born in Scotland in 1993 and started the piano at the age of five, going on to win the Minnie Freeman Memorial Cup in the Leamington Spa

Festival in 2003. Eleanor Mackereith began to play the cello at the age of six, following a period of rapid progress on the piano while Lydia Rothwell started on the cello at five, and has now taken up the trumpet.

The concert starts at 6pm and Tickets are available at www.solihullsymphony.org.uk or on 0121 704 6962.

■ Rising star pianist Kevin Lee

Art on show

FINE Art students from Solihull College are exhibiting their work at a Birmingham gallery.

The group have put some of their favourite pieces on display at the Works Gallery in Pershore Street.

You can see /No Comment/ from March 23-25.